

The Prophecies of Isaiah ⁶⁶
Lesson 32

In chapter 51, the Lord begins the second part of His message in this section of vision 22.

Part 1	Part 2	Part 3	Part 4
Because the Jews reject the Servant, He takes salvation to the Gentiles. Isaiah 49-50	A remnant of the Jews will believe in the Servant and be exalted. Isaiah 51:1-52:12	The Servant will suffer and then He will be exalted. Isaiah 52:13-53:12	The Servant will bring salvation to the Jews and the Gentiles. Isaiah 54-57

Here, He promises that a remnant of Jews will believe in the Servant and will be exalted. He builds His case, starting with a reference to Abraham and Sarah.

WHO PURSUES RIGHTEOUSNESS

Isaiah 51:1 " Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, Who seek the LORD: Look to the rock from which you were hewn, And to the quarry from which you were dug. ² "Look to Abraham your father, And to Sarah who gave birth to you in pain; When he was one I called him, Then I blessed him and multiplied him."

The pursuit of righteousness always depends on the seeking of a relationship with the Lord. For Israel, the essence of the Lord's direct relationship with her begins with the Lord's selection of Abraham to be the patriarch of His chosen nation to bring forth the Savior. Abraham was one year old when the Lord selected him. He was born in the village of Ur in modern day Iraq and moved with his family to Haran, in northwest Mesopotamia between the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers. After the death of his father, the Lord sent Abraham, still called Abram at the time, down into what would become the Promised Land, just outside the village of Ai.

THE COMFORT OF ZION

Isaiah 51:3 Indeed, the LORD will comfort Zion; He will comfort all her waste places. And her wilderness He will make like Eden, And her desert like the garden of the LORD; Joy and gladness will be found in her, Thanksgiving and sound of a melody. ⁴ "Pay attention to Me, O My people; And give ear to Me, O My nation; For a Law will go forth from Me, And I will set My justice for a light of the peoples. ⁵ "My righteousness is near, My salvation has gone forth, And My arms will judge the peoples; The coastlands will wait for Me, And for My arm they will wait expectantly. ⁶ "Lift up your eyes to the sky, Then look to the earth beneath; For the sky will vanish like smoke, And the earth will wear out like a garment, And its inhabitants will die in like manner, But My salvation shall be forever, And My righteousness shall not wane.

Eden is the garden of the Lord which He created on the sixth day. He assigned Adam as its caretaker before He created Eve. Zion was the southern section of Jerusalem, so-called because it was the citadel of the Jebusites that David conquered and established as his capital in his seventh year as king of Israel. In Hezekiah's day, it is the capital of the Southern Kingdom and the home of Isaiah. Jerusalem will see no true peace until the King of Peace establishes His throne within her walls. At that time, Zion will be like the garden of the Lord. He gave Israel the law while she was in the wilderness. He provided the prophets to bolster the reality of His presence and as surety that His law will one day bring judgment on her for her sin. He will arrive as a babe to deliver His personal message and die as her Savior. He will return to set up His kingdom and establish her as the premier nation of the world. He will judge the world in justice and righteousness with salvation through Him as its reward. He will offer the same salvation to the people of the coastlands, the Gentiles and many will put their trust in Him. All will wait for His arrival with great anticipation. Tattered, torn, and worn, the enemies of Israel and the Lord will die on the day of His arrival to provide His everlasting salvation and righteousness.

WHO KNOW RIGHTEOUSNESS

Isaiah 51:7 "Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, A people in whose heart is My Law; Do not fear the reproach of man, Neither be dismayed at their revilings. ⁸ "For the moth will eat them like a garment, And the grub will eat them like wool. But My righteousness shall be forever, And My salvation to all generations." ^{9a} Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; Awake as in the days of old, the generations of long ago.

Some of the Southern Kingdom know the righteousness of the Lord in a personal, heartfelt manner; they are not to fear anyone because the Lord will give them the strength to survive all threats.

LORD'S ACTIONS

Isaiah 51:9b Was it not Thou who cut Rahab in pieces, Who pierced the dragon? ¹⁰ Was it not Thou who dried up the sea, The waters of the great deep; Who made the depths of the sea a pathway For the redeemed to cross over?

Rahab was the personal name of a woman who lived in Jericho and helped the Israelites as they made their plans to cross the Jordan River to take the city. The name means arrogant, raging, turbulent or afflicter but here it refers to a dragon, not the woman. A psalm mentions the Lord and this same Rahab.

Psalms 89:8 O LORD God of hosts, who is like Thee, O mighty LORD? Thy faithfulness also surrounds Thee. ⁹ Thou dost rule the swelling of the sea; When its waves rise, Thou dost still them. ¹⁰ Thou Thyself didst crush Rahab like one who is slain; Thou didst scatter Thine enemies with Thy mighty arm. ¹¹ The heavens are Thine, the earth also is Thine; The world and all it contains, Thou hast founded them.

Whether this dragon is Satan the devil or not, we do not know; however, the context assures that in spite of the Lord's dealing with Rahab, He will provide a way for the redeemed of the Lord to overcome all obstacles safely.

LORD'S RANSOM RETURNS

Isaiah 51:11 So the ransomed of the LORD will return, And come with joyful shouting to Zion; And everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, And sorrow and sighing will flee away. ^{12a} "I, even I, am He who comforts you.

The Lord will one day allow all the ransomed Israelites to return to the Promised Land where they will live without fear, comforted by the Lord with every need met and an attitude of everlasting joy.

FORGOTTEN MAKER – FEAR OF OPPRESSOR

Isaiah 51:12b Who are you that you are afraid of man who dies, And of the son of man who is made like grass; ¹³ That you have forgotten the LORD your Maker, Who stretched out the heavens, And laid the foundations of the earth; That you fear continually all day long because of the fury of the oppressor, As he makes ready to destroy? But where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴ "The exile will soon be set free, and will not die in the dungeon, nor will his bread be lacking.

The Southern Kingdom fears the return of Assyria although Isaiah has promised in his prophecies that Assyria will never return. Yet, he has promised that Babylon will come to overtake her if she strays in her ways, and she will. Apparently, the Southern Kingdom thinks that this prophecy refers to the Northern Kingdom's exile, but it does not. From today's vantage point of having the complete Scripture, we know that the exile of the Southern Kingdom lasted only 70 years. The people of Isaiah's day, had to fear the thought of an oppressor. They knew Egypt was too weak to help them and they had no other allies. This passage assures the people of the Southern Kingdom that their exile will pass quickly in God's timing and they will not suffer as they did under Egyptian bondage. Why will she go into exile? It will be because she has forgotten the Lord, her Maker.

FORGOTTEN MAKER – MY PEOPLE

Isaiah 51:15 "For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea and its waves roar (the LORD of hosts is His name). ¹⁶ "And I have put My words in your mouth, and have covered you with the shadow of My hand, to establish the heavens, to found the earth, and to say to Zion, 'You are My people.'"

Israel is without excuse. She has everything she needs to live a righteous life with her Lord, but she will not do so. He, the Lord, will not let her go. He, the Creator of all, will protect her in her rebellion because He chose her as His people.

TWO THINGS BEFALL ISRAEL

Isaiah 51:17 Rouse yourself! Rouse yourself! Arise, O Jerusalem, You who have drunk from the LORD'S hand the cup of His anger; The chalice of reeling you have drained to the dregs. ¹⁸ There is none to guide her among all the sons she has borne; Nor is there one to take her by the hand among all the sons she has reared. ¹⁹ These two things have befallen you; Who will mourn for you? The devastation and destruction, famine and sword; How shall I comfort you? ²⁰ Your sons have fainted, They lie helpless at the head of every street, Like an antelope in a net, Full of the wrath of the LORD, The rebuke of your God. ²¹ Therefore, please hear this, you afflicted, Who are drunk, but not with wine:

The Lord has every reason to be angry with the people of Jerusalem. They will feel His anger because of their great iniquities and transgressions. The blind leaders of Israel cannot lead the people to safety. They will suffer because of their sins. First, they will mourn. Second, they will faint. No one can help them with either of these conditions because they are drunk in their alienation from the Lord.

Far Prophecy

CUP REMOVED FROM ISRAEL

Isaiah 51:22 Thus says your Lord, the LORD, even your God Who contends for His people, "Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of reeling; The chalice of My anger, You will never drink it again.

When the Lord returns to set up His kingdom on earth, Israel will no longer feel the anger of the Lord. She will have chosen Him and she will never stray from His Law, safety and guidance.

Far Prophecy

CUP GIVEN TO TORMENTORS

Isaiah 51:23 "And I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, Who have said to you, 'Lie down that we may walk over you.' You have even made your back like the ground, And like the street for those who walk over it."

The anger of the Lord will transfer from Israel to all the enemies of the Lord and Israel. To be an enemy of Israel is to be an enemy of the Lord. Plainly put, the nations and religions that want to see the destruction of Israel are enemies of the true and only Lord God.

Far Prophecy

ACTION - REDEEMED WITHOUT MONEY

Isaiah 52:1 Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For the uncircumcised and the unclean Will no more come into you. ² Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; Loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. ³ For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money."

By the time of the great tribulation of Israel, just before the second return of the Lord, Jerusalem, or Zion, will be totally in the hands of a leader striving to make it his place of worship of the god Zeus/Jupiter. However, the Lord will bring an end to that ruler, reclaim Jerusalem for Himself and it will once again belong to Israel as the capital of her Savior, the Lord.

Far Prophecy

REASON – EARTH SEES THE SALVATION OF ISRAEL'S GOD

Isaiah 52:4 For thus says the Lord GOD, "My people went down at the first into Egypt to reside there, then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. ⁵ "Now therefore, what do I have here," declares the LORD, "seeing that My people have been taken away without cause?" Again the LORD declares, "Those who rule over them howl, and My name is continually blasphemed all day long. ⁶ "Therefore My people shall know My name; therefore in that day I am the one who is speaking, 'Here I am.'" ⁷ How lovely on the mountains Are the feet of him who brings good news, Who announces peace And brings good news of happiness, Who announces salvation, And says to Zion, "Your God reigns!" ⁸ Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, They shout joyfully together; For they will see with their own eyes When the LORD restores Zion. ⁹ Break forth, shout joyfully together, You waste places of Jerusalem; For the LORD has comforted His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰ The LORD has bared His holy arm In the sight of all the nations, That all the ends of the earth may see The salvation of our God.

The exit from Egypt and Assyria will not compare to the return of the Lord to establish His rule on the mountain of Zion. Although it will become a place of continual blasphemy, when He arrives, Israel will finally proclaim, our "God reigns!" At that moment, every eye will see, every ear will hear and every knee will bow to Israel's God. Although not all will be saved, all will bow.

DEPART TO EXILE

Isaiah 52:11 Depart, depart, go out from there, Touch nothing unclean; Go out of the midst of her, purify yourselves, You who carry the vessels of the LORD. ¹² But you will not go out in haste, Nor will you go as fugitives; For the LORD will go before you, And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Israel exited the ungodly Egypt and, one day, she will exit ungodly Babylon. Jeremiah says it as follows:

Lamentations 4:13 Because of the sins of her prophets And the iniquities of her priests, Who have shed in her midst The blood of the righteous, ¹⁴ They wandered, blind, in the streets; They were defiled with blood So that no one could touch their garments. ¹⁵ "Depart! Unclean!" they cried of themselves. "Depart, depart, do not touch!" So they fled and wandered; Men among the nations said, "They shall not continue to dwell with us." ¹⁶ The presence of the LORD has scattered them; He will not continue to regard them. They did not honor the priests, They did not favor the elders.

Soon it will be time for the Southern Kingdom to depart for exile because of her sins. As she leaves, she is not to touch anything unclean. The Lord promises to protect His people while they are in exile for 70 years, and He does. At the end of the first year of exile, the Lord elevates a Jewish noble named Daniel to be the second ruler in the Babylonian Kingdom. With Daniel in place, the Jews are safe through the entire period of the exile.

Israel is not to fear and Hezekiah is to comfort his people with these words. A remnant will survive all the evil cast at them by the nations and the Lord will exalt them above all other when He arrives to set up His kingdom.
